Election/Restrictions

1. Claims 1-15 are generic to the following disclosed patentably distinct compositions: a) a specific disclosed cyclosiloxane and b) a specific disclosed end-capping agent. The compositions are independent or distinct because prior art anticipating one composition would not necessarily anticipate and/or render obvious another claimed composition. Applicant is required under 35 U.S.C. 121 to elect a single disclosed composition, even though this requirement is traversed. Applicant is advised that a reply to this requirement must include an identification of an end-capping agent that is elected consistent with this requirement, and a listing of all claims readable thereon, including any claims subsequently added. An argument that a claim is allowable or that all claims are generic is considered nonresponsive unless accompanied by an election.

Upon the allowance of a generic claim, applicant will be entitled to consideration of claims to additional compositions which depend from or otherwise require all the limitations of an allowable generic claim as provided by 37 CFR 1.141. If claims are added after the election, applicant must indicate which are readable upon the elected compositions.

2. Please note that cyclosiloxane TMCTS has been constructively elected by original presentation for prosecution on the merits. Thus part "a" of the restriction requirement has been determined by prosecution history. Therefore, for the response to the restriction requirement to be complete applicant is required to elect a specific "end-capping" agent. This restriction is necessary in lieu to the amendment to claim 1 of the instant application.

Art Unit: 1621

3. Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include (i) an election of a species or invention to be examined even though the requirement be traversed (37 CFR 1.143) and (ii) identification of the claims encompassing the elected invention.

The election of an invention or species may be made with or without traverse. To reserve a right to petition, the election must be made with traverse. If the reply does not distinctly and specifically point out supposed errors in the restriction requirement, the election shall be treated as an election without traverse.

Should applicant traverse on the ground that the inventions or species are not patentably distinct, applicant should submit evidence or identify such evidence now of record showing the inventions or species to be obvious variants or clearly admit on the record that this is the case. In either instance, if the examiner finds one of the inventions unpatentable over the prior art, the evidence or admission may be used in a rejection under 35 U.S.C.103(a) of the other invention.

Any inquiry concerning this communication or earlier communications from the examiner should be directed to Samuel A. Barts whose telephone number is 571-272-2870. The examiner can normally be reached on 6:30-3:00.
